SUFFRAGETTES LAY SIEGE TO SENATE IN VOTE CAMPAIGN

Armed With Petitions, Women
From Every State Demand
Constitutional Amendment.

CHAMPIONS ON FLOOR

Senator Owen Leads Equal-Franchise Fight and Pleads for Favorable Action.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—"Votes for Women" was the demand made today by delegations of suffragettes from every State in the Union, who besieged the Senate Chamber, and bombarded the Senators with petitions bearing thousands of signatures urging consideration of a woman suffrage constitutional amendment.

The siege of the Senate followed a demonstration in the course of which hundreds of women paraded from Hyattsville, Md., through the country roads and the city streets, down Pennsylvania avenue and through the Capitol grounds. Members of the Senate Woman's Suffrage Committee, which has already favorably reported the suffrage amendment, met the petition bearers, and rode to the Capitol with them.

Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the Executive Committee of the National Woman Suffrage Association, officers of the association and the Senate Committee headed the parade. At the Capitol it disbanded and a cloud of femininity fluttered into the Senate wing.

Senators Hurry Forth.
The dignified but of the imposing marble room just off the Senate chamber was shattered by the demands of women from various States, that their cards be taken to their Senators. The papers were busy for the better part of an hour, hurrying Senators from the chamber to meet their "constituents" armed with petitions.

After the petitions had been presented, the delegations flocked to the galleries, where seats had been reserved, and the woman suffrage supporters on the floor of the Senate took charge of the demonstration. Senators Owen, Ashurst, Folger, Jones, Weeks, Lane, Smoot, Clegg, Thomas, Shafroth, and Holtz had brief addresses endorsing the petitions.

Owen Urges Franchise.
Senator Owen officially presented the petitions to the Senate.
"The reasons for this request on the part of the women of the country," he said, "are overwhelming and unanswerable, and the time has come when they must be considered with dignity, with unbiased mind, free from prejudice or passion, in the interest of the welfare of the human race."

"I don't appeal to men from a party standpoint or call their attention to the effect which may be expected to follow if either one of the great parties should go so far as to insult the 5,000,000 women who now have the full suffrage in America by contemptuously denying a right so obviously just and so obviously necessary to the welfare, the progress and the happiness of the people of America, but I will remind you that a great party with high ideals, casting over 4,000,000 votes last year, devoted for woman suffrage and the question can no longer be ignored."

Tonight the suffragettes will continue their demonstration at a banquet to be attended by members of the House and Senate.

Clasp Appeal for Vote.
Senator Clegg, presenting Minnesota petitions, made a stirring appeal for extension of suffrage.

"Whatever the fate of this present resolution may be decided," he said, "but the time is not far distant and is inevitable, when the American people will confer on the American woman the only weapon by means of which she can peacefully defend herself and her children—the ballot."

Practically every Senator was armed with a bundle of the petitions, bound with the yellow ribbon of the suffragists.

Senator Smoot, presenting the Utah petitions, attacked militancy in the fight for suffrage.

"Suffrage should be given, not to the Pantheists and the militant radicals among our women," he said, "but to those who follow in the womanly footsteps of the American pioneers for suffrage—Mary Ellen Foster, Susan B. Anthony and others."

BRIDE WHO WOULDN'T AGREE TO LEAVE MOTHER

MRS. LUCY BUMPASS

Bride Refuses to Sign Contract to Leave Her Mother

Mrs. Lucy Bumpass Won't Heed
Scriptural Injunction and Has Husband Arrested.

Mrs. Lucy Bumpass, 3900 Market street exhibited in the Municipal Police Court Thursday, a contract by which her husband tried to induce her to desert her invalid mother, Mrs. Emma Cohan.

Mrs. Bumpass testified that when she refused to sign the contract Wednesday her husband created a disturbance and she had him arrested. Bumpass is a printer. He is 29 years old, and his wife is 18. They were married three weeks ago.

The contract shown by Mrs. Bumpass reads:
"This is to certify that Herbert Ross Bumpass, my husband, has this day given me the privilege of accompanying him where he will provide a home for me and give up my mother. He has since our marriage faithfully performed his part of the marriage contract. I sign this of my own free will, without persuasion or force of any kind."

Judge Slater discharged Bumpass and advised him to be reconciled with his wife.

While on the witness stand, Bumpass said that he believed his wife should follow the scriptural injunction to leave her husband, her father and her mother, and cleave to her husband.

"I love my wife better than I love God," said Bumpass. "She should show her love for me by going with me to the end of the earth and giving up all other ties."

The street got its name originally from a natural cave which old-timers say ran into the earth at this point. It was thought that the cave-in was due to this, but investigation showed quicksand which had been washed away by the leakage from the sewers, leaving nothing to the street but a surface about two feet in thickness.

TIPPLER TARRED AND HIS FACE IS PAINTED GREEN

Prohibition Law-Breaker in Kansas Town Decides He Will Sign Pledge.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., July 31.—Henderson Hasty of Easton, a small town near here, was stripped of his clothing, a coat of warm tar was placed on his body and his face painted green last night by a party of citizens, determined to enforce observance of the prohibition law.

Hasty was found asleep beside a road in Easton and was taken to a nearby barn where the tar was applied. He was allowed to sleep out the night on the hay. That he would sign the pledge is said to have been his first declaration when he awoke this morning.

COBB CALLS ON WILSON

WASHINGTON, July 31.—"Ty Cobb was a White House caller today. He came with Representative Tillie of Georgia, and President Wilson greeted him warmly."

Cobb invited the President to see the Detroit-Washington games, especially that on Saturday, when a cup will be presented to Walter Johnson. The President said he would try to attend.

EDWARD MORRIS, HEAD OF PACKING HOUSE, VERY ILL

Millionaire Returns From West
After Six Months Too Weak to Take Up Business.

UNNERVED BY BEEF TRIAL

Friend Says Chicago Man Broke Down Under Strain of Inquiry Two Years Ago.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Edward Morris, head of the great packing house which his father founded, is seriously ill of nervous and mental ailments at his home, 4800 Drexel boulevard.

Although he has been under the closest care and supervision of doctors and nurses for six months, his condition has been kept secret until today.

The nature of his illness made it impossible for him to attend to business from the time he was stricken, but it was generally believed that he was in California, and his absence from his office was so explained. Besides his interests in the packing business, amounting to millions, he is one of the heaviest holders of Chicago bank stocks.

Has Nervous Ailment.
One of his friends said the millionaire packer was afflicted with nervous trouble, brought on by the strain and excitement attending the trial of packers nearly two years ago. He remarked that "Mr. Morris had been completely unstrung by the long strain of the packers' trial."

Last winter Morris, accompanied by several members of his family, went to California in the hope of restoring his health. While there he was constantly under the care of one of the most eminent physicians in that part of the country, who assured him that all he needed was rest and complete relief from business cares.

Although Morris remained in California with his family several months his recovery was not rapid. Some time ago he returned from the West in his private car, very weak and emaciated. He was taken at once to his magnificent new residence, which had been completed only a few months before.

Vice-President in Control.
All of his interests at the stockyards in this city as well as his packing houses in Kansas, Texas and other Western states, have been under the direction of Thomas B. Wilson, vice-president, and other officials of Morris & Co.

The stricken packer has not been strong enough to be taken to his country home in Green Lake, Wis.

GOV. MAJOR TO WORK ON A ROAD GRADER

He Will Have Charge of Tractor
Engine on Good Roads Days,
Aug. 20 and 21.

JEFFERSON CITY, July 31.—Gov. Major will take charge of a tractor engine and four road graders on Aug. 20 and 21 and supervise the work of constructing several miles of road. The engine and road graders were donated for use on those days by an Impelement Company.

The Governor says he has graded roads and he is of the opinion he can grade several miles during the two days. He will operate the equipment in Cole County.

From the letters received, the Governor believes nearly 100,000 people will turn out on the two days designated in his good roads proclamation.

WOMAN, 77, FOUND ON ISLAND AFTER THREE DAYS' FAST

Son Discovers Mrs. Louisa J.
Brock, Exhausted, Lying in Rushes Near St. Charles.

DROWNING WAS FEARED

She Had Removed Shoes to Wade in River for Drink and Son Took Them Away.

Mrs. Louisa J. Brock, 77 years old, was found Thursday by a searching party in the tall rushes on Catfish Island, in the Missouri River near St. Charles, after having been for three days and three nights without food or drink.

Searching parties ranged over the 900-acre island, from when Mrs. Brock's son, L. B. Brock, found his mother's shoes by the river bank Monday morning.

Fearing that his mother might have drowned herself, he sent word down the river asking that a watch be kept for the body. An advertisement offering a $25 reward for the finding of the body was placed in the St. Louis papers by a son, John A. Brock of 2222 Eads avenue.

Took Shoes Away.
L. B. Brock took the shoes back to the small house on the island which has been his home, and where his mother lives. In the subsequent search he visited almost every point except the place where he had found the shoes.

This, it now appears from Mrs. Brock's story, was a mistake. She says she took off her shoes in order to wade into the water a short distance and get a drink. She found it necessary to go farther along the bank than she had expected before finding a place at which she could enter the water.

Grew to Weak to Walk.
When she got back to the place where she had left her shoes, the shoes were gone, and she did not feel able to return without them. She lay down, and as time passed she grew too weak even to return to the water, so that she went thirsty as well as hungry.

She was found when Brock, about to abandon the search, took others to the spot where he had found the shoes. She was so weak that at first it was not thought she would be able to walk. She remained at her island home.

JUDGE GRIMM GIVES MARRIAGE FEE TO BRIDE

Takes Bills Handed to Him by Husband and Gives Them to Girl as Wedding Present.

After Circuit Judge Grimm had married Clemens J. Dedek of 3674 South Jefferson avenue and Miss Nellie Connors of 440 Hummel street, in his private office Wednesday afternoon, the bridegroom handed him several bills.

"Please accept this as your fee, Judge," the bride said.

The Judge turned to the bride, and handed her the money. "Please accept this as a wedding present," he said, and the bride did.

Clarence Hunt, deputy Probate Clerk, was witness of the ceremony. The couple were married at Belleville on a charge of riot and will be prosecuted under an almost forgotten clause in the old common law of England. These are the first arrests on this charge in the memory of attaches of the Belleville courthouse and jail.

Riot differs from riot in that it charges that the rioters gathered together under a conspiracy to do an unlawful act and failed to carry it out. It had been carried out for its purpose it might have been a riot. A riot is punishable by a fine of $100 or four months in jail for each of the conspirators.

The riot charge is based on a near-attack Tuesday on August Reeder of Belleville, a shoemaker who refused to go on strike with his fellow workers. A crowd followed him home, and Reeder ran into the house and locked himself in. The crowd dispersed two hours later.

Those arrested, charged with conspiring to injure Reeder, were: Edward McDaniel, William Penn, Conrad Blen, Amos Allen, Leonard Emery, Emil Beyer, Fred Meyer, Henry Stoerner, John Smallwood, Ed Rogers, Walter Zinc and Emil Groh.

WOMAN POISONS NEIGHBOR'S CHICKS; CAN'T BE PUNISHED

Prosecutor Decides Law Does Not Protect Fowls That Wander From Homes.

SHE WARNED NEIGHBOR

Told Him She'd Spread Poison
If He Didn't Prevent Ruining of Her Lawn.

The police no longer will act as arbitrators in quarrels due to the activity of chickens in neighboring yards. This decision was reached Thursday after Assistant Circuit Attorney Stanton advised the officers that there is no specific law to protect the roaming fowls after they leave home.

The question was brought to an issue when William Kluesner of 308 West Koels street complained that 10 of his chickens had been poisoned, and demanded the arrest of his neighbor, Mrs. Mary Perrot, 749 Minnesota avenue.

A patrolman to whom Kluesner appealed referred the complaint to Stanton, and when a warrant was refused, announced that the chickens would have to fight their own battles.

Woman Warned Owner.
Kluesner owns a number of chickens, which have a habit of rambling about the neighborhood. Mrs. Perrot complained to him several times that the chickens have almost ruined her lawn, disturbed her flowers, and scratched many plants up by the roots. She notified Kluesner a few days ago, she told the police, that he must keep up his chickens or take the consequences.

Evidently Kluesner did not feel the fowls to make their daily visits to her yard. Mrs. Perrot then bought some roach poison and spread it on places of bread. The crisis was placed about her lawn and she awaited results.

She told Kluesner that she had scattered the poison about the yard, and that unless he penned up his chickens the "consequences" probably would be death to the chicks.

Kluesner met a patrolman Wednesday and told him that 10 chickens were dead. The patrolman went to see Mrs. Perrot.

"Yes, I arranged for their death," Mrs. Perrot said, "and I issued a warning to Kluesner to pen up his chickens. I'll stand by it."

Woman Within Her Rights.
The policeman was in a quandary. Mrs. Perrot pointed out several places of bread on the lawn to verify her statements. He accompanied Kluesner to the Circuit Attorney's office.

After Stanton had examined several volumes of law books, he said chickens roaming at large have no right which neighbors are bound to respect. He told Kluesner that Mrs. Perrot had a right to protect her property against the ravages of chickens and animals.

STRIKERS ARRESTED ON ANCIENT "ROUT" CHARGE

Twelve Men Are to Be Tried for Pursuing Worker Who Would Not Go on Strike.

Twelve striking shoeworkers were arrested Thursday at Belleville on a charge of riot and will be prosecuted under an almost forgotten clause in the old common law of England. These are the first arrests on this charge in the memory of attaches of the Belleville courthouse and jail.

Riot differs from riot in that it charges that the rioters gathered together under a conspiracy to do an unlawful act and failed to carry it out. It had been carried out for its purpose it might have been a riot. A riot is punishable by a fine of $100 or four months in jail for each of the conspirators.

Mayor's Wife Thinks the X-Ray Skirts Worn Here Are Modest

Much Depends on Manner of Wearer

Declares the Real Diaphanous Gown, Which Is Immodest, Hasn't Got Here Yet.

MISSES VEGETABLE MAN
She Is Worried More Over Her
Household Cares Than the Latest in Fashions.

Mrs. Irene Kiel, wife of the Mayor, believes there is always time to discuss cabbage and diaphanous skirts, to paraphrase the nonsense poet, but she places the cabbage first.

It was not until she could get the vegetable man's daily visit to her home, 1525 Missouri avenue, off her mind, Friday, that she would talk about X-ray gowns, a subject upon which her husband, just as has been discussing learnedly, and on which she agrees with him in the main.

But when the vegetable man had gone (without her seeing him, for which lapse she blamed a Post-Dispatch reporter) she discussed them in a manner that was almost as illuminating as the vegetable skirt itself, when the setting sun is seen through it from the east. It illuminated particularly the Mayor's source of information on things femininely sartorial.

Maybe It Is 'Maybe' It Isn't.
It disclosed that Mrs. Mayor has studied the diaphanous skirt, historically, philosophically, aesthetically and in every other possible way, without wearing it herself (which she vows she never shall do), and concludes that maybe it is and maybe it isn't. That is, while she condemns the diaphanous gown of New York and of Paris, she holds the parent gown of St. Louis may be modest or immodest, all depending upon the point of view—not the shady side point of view, but the purely sociological one.

In other words, Mrs. Kiel thinks one woman was a victim of the style of the marquisette, and she is a model of propriety, while another can saunter along the street in a heavy brocade in such a way as to necessitate the police.

Mrs. Kiel was persuaded to discuss these serious matters with great diffidence. At first she said her husband was the official public discussor of the Kiel family, and added, with a laugh, she believed he could be induced to talk about most anything of that sort if approached in the right manner. Besides, she explained, she was pretty busy.

All her husband has to do is to be Mayor of the city, but she has to take care of her household. And the vegetable man might be there any minute. How could her husband have time to discuss the Mayor's job unless he found the necessary nourishment awaiting him when he came home at dinner time?

Hasn't Reached Us Yet.
"What's the use of talking about the diaphanous gown, anyway," she asked. "It hasn't reached St. Louis yet. We have only a few imitation St. Louis is always behind in these ultra modes. Why, the sheath gown had been worn in New York long before."

She stopped as she heard a soft far off down the street. It was the "vegetable man," and he had gone by for the day. It couldn't be helped, and so she turned to the question before her.

She declared that she made a marked distinction between the "diaphanous" skirt and the "transparent" skirt. The "diaphanous" she pronounced quite shocking.

"You see I know all about it," she explained, "although I never actually saw one worn. But a friend of mine in New York wrote me all about it, and then I got more information from a man who knows at one of the department stores."

The true diaphanous gown, she said, is made of sheer silk gauze or tissue. She said it was out of a la chemise. "Not having heard all this 'waters' skirt talk about, 'la chemise' being synonymous with 'comeback,' she manifestly did not intend a pun. It is worn over an under garment with an abbreviated skirt instead of a vest.

"And you don't have to get on the opposite side from the sun and face through it, either," she remarked, holding up her handkerchief before her eyes by way of illustration.

On such a gown she emphatically set her disapproval. She was glad, she said, it hadn't reached St. Louis. Maybe it would get here later, for she never can tell, but Mrs. Kiel didn't think it would be worn generally.

"Not Altogether Transparent."
The transparent gown as it is worn in St. Louis is not altogether transparent, Mrs. Kiel continued, although she admitted that frequently it comes glaringly clear. It is a quality made of lincne, voile, marquisette or dimity.

Racer Trying to Break 85-
Mile-an-Hour Record
When Collision Causes
Live Wire to Ignite Petrol
Tank.

By Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, O., July 31.—With seven dead and three others dying as the result of the accident to the motor cycle of Odin Johnson at the Legion Motordrome last night, Cerner James Wise of Kempton County, Ky., today swore out warrants charging three of the officials of the amusement park with voluntary manslaughter.

The three men are Manager Edward of the park and Manager Bush of the Motor Cycle League.

The list of dead was not augmented during the final hours of the morning, but attending physicians say that at least three of the burned cannot recover and that the condition of several others is precarious.

Last of Injured Grows.
The list of injured is steadily increasing as the names of those who were not taken to hospitals become known. It has been ascertained that the fiery fluid was thrown over no less than 10 persons and it is considered almost certain that the death list did not rise even higher, inasmuch as the motordrome is miles from a hospital and first aid to the injured was almost impossible, owing to the panic that followed the explosion.

The revised list of dead follows: Odin Johnson of Salt Lake City, Utah, motor cycle racer; William Davis, aged 5 years old, Ludlow, Ky.; Henry Andrews, aged 15 years, Cincinnati; Mrs. Wm. Michael, aged 9 years, Ludlow, Ky.; Miss Ethel Bushman, aged 9 years, Covington, Ky.; James Carter, aged 9 years, Cincinnati; Wm. Patterson, aged 35 years, Cincinnati.

Young Andrews and Miss Bushman were unconscious when brought to the hospital and their names were placed on the books as Samuel Travers and Miss Burdman, respectively. Relatives called later and they were identified.

Several others of the score or more who were burned when the burning oil was thrown over them, or when it is the panic that followed the accident, are in a critical condition, and are not expected to live.

Johnson, who lived in Salt Lake City and was captain of the Cincinnati team, which was competing at the motordrome, was placed on the books as the extreme top of the circular track, crashed into an electric light pole, broke it off and the contact of the live wire with the machine exploded the gasoline tank, throwing the burning fluid over a score of spectators.

Most of the injured are residents of Cincinnati and Kentucky cities.

Live Wire Ignites Gasoline.
The race was the last one on the program and Johnson, who had won both the previous contests, was leading. In coming in front of the grand stand he was seen to suddenly steer his wheel toward the top, and before he could right it he had hit the pole.

A moment later a streak of flames shot out over the audience and a semi-panic reigned. Living torches ran here and there and it was with difficulty that the flames were extinguished in time to prevent the grand stand from catching fire.

Get to Lower Record.
The track is quarter-mile saucer track and has an angle of 90 degrees. Cyclists were required to have a speed of 75 miles an hour in order to retain a place on the upper elevation of the track. The motordrome was crowded when the accident occurred, the advertised feature being that Johnson would lower the track record of 55 miles an hour.

When the spectators, who were on fire, began to run, many women dived into the stands and clung to the sides and it was with the greatest difficulty that a stampede was prevented. The Cleveland team was opposing the Cincinnati team in the race.

Divorce Suit Does NOT END DOMESTIC LIFE OF COUPLE

M. T. Colgate and Wife Live Together as Before, and Neither Mentions Case.

M. T. Colgate of Edwardsville, master mechanic of the Litchfield & Madison Railroad, and Mrs. Daisy L. Colgate, who filed a divorce suit against him Wednesday, are still living together in their home at 607 Chapman street, and each is waiting for the other to speak of the suit first.

Their statements to a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday indicated that they did not intend to let the divorce suit destroy the companionship of their home life.

"I didn't know anything about the suit until a Deputy Sheriff called at the shops yesterday and served me with the papers," Colgate said. "I had taken breakfast with my wife, and she didn't say a word about it. I went home to dinner, and we talked about other things, but she never mentioned the suit, so I didn't. We had breakfast together, again today, and she wrapped up some delicacies for me to take to the shop 'till lunch time."

"I filed the suit," said Mrs. Colgate, "and I supposed he must have heard about it. But he didn't mention it, so why should I? Our home life will go on just the same for the present."

Mrs. Colgate's only allegation, in her petition, is that she has reason to believe that her husband associated with other women. They were married June 10, 1910, in Wichita, Kan.

LABOR MAN UNDER ONE SENTENCE, GETS ANOTHER

Patrick Quinn, I. W. W. Leader
at Paterson, Gets Year in Jail
Besides Penitentiary Term.

PATERSON, N. J., July 31.—Patrick Quinn, I. W. W. leader, active in the recent workers' strike, was sentenced today to serve a year in the county jail for saying last Saturday night at a Socialist meeting: "Elect a Socialist Mayor and then you won't have cops like Bummy Ryan bating you over the head with a club."

Quinn admitted having used this language, but denied it was disorderly as charged. He is now out on bail pending appeal from conviction on a two to seven year sentence in state's prison for inciting to riot during the strike.

HERO THRICE IN A YEAR

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 31.—For the third time within a year, William Kingston Jr., 14 years old, qualified yesterday for a Carnegie medal. He heard his sister, Stella, 4 years old, scream as she tumbled down a well 15 feet deep on her father's farm at Barkerville, Pa., and he rushed to the scene.

Fastening the bucket rope securely about the window, he slid down the line to the bottom of the well. There he pulled Stella from the water and fastened the rope about her. Climbing to the top, he hauled her out. His father arrived in time to revive Stella.

Last summer Billy rescued a girl who had fallen into Abascoen Inlet. In December he rescued John Reynolds, who had been thrown overboard in a storm.

His father, William Kingston, is a well-known fisherman in the area.

PRESIDENT AND THE SENATE ARE NOT IN ACCORD ON MEXICO

Resolutions Expected to Be Introduced Calling for Private Correspondence.

H. L. WILSON GAINS FAVOR

Ambassador's Recommendation for Recognition of Huerta Makes Good Impression.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—That the administration of President Wilson is not in exact harmony with the Democratic majority in the Senate on the Mexican situation is indicated by today's developments.

The impression made by Ambassador Wilson before the Foreign Relations Committee has tended to increase respect for the Huerta Government, and the delay of recognition or other action at the White House probably will be commented on in resolutions to be introduced in the Senate.

H. L. Wilson Wins Support. Ambassador Wilson's conference with members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations resulted in stronger support for his plan to recognize the Huerta Government in Mexico than he has received at any time since reaching Washington.

After a three-hour questioning of the Ambassador many members of the committee expressed the opinion that serious consideration should be given to his recommendations for a guarded and restricted recognition of Huerta, designed to bolster up the present government until elections can be held Oct. 30.

The determination of the Government's Mexican policy does not rest with the Senate, however, and there was nothing in the situation to indicate that President Wilson or Secretary Bryan had wavered in their determination not to recognize the Huerta Government at present. The matter presented to the Senate Committee by the Ambassador already had been laid before the President and Secretary of State and their attitude against recognition had been based upon information from other confidential sources, many of them at variance with the reports of Ambassador Wilson.

The conference at the Capitol was distinctly a presentation of "his side of the case" by the Ambassador to Mexico. As a result of the generally favorable impression he created and the close scrutiny and tentative approval given to his report by many members of the committee it is believed the administration will be urged to furnish the Senate Committee at once with a private information gathered by William Bayard Hale, Reginald H. Del Valle and by consular agents at various points.

Differs With President. Two principal points of difference have been developed between Ambassador Wilson and the administration. These relate to the present control of Huerta over Mexican affairs and to the conditions that result from the downfall of the Mexican Government. Ambassador Wilson told the Senate Committee that the Huerta Government dominated affairs throughout the Republic and had driven the Constitutionalists out of many of their strongholds, including the States of Coahuila and Nuevo Leon.

The President, it is understood has information considered thoroughly reliable by himself and Secretary Bryan which shows the Constitutionalists strength to be greatly in excess of the estimates of Ambassador Wilson and indicates the Huerta Government dominates the situation only in a small part of the Republic. The need for immediate recognition of the Huerta Government as laid before the committee by the Ambassador was based on the belief that President Huerta cannot retain control of governmental machinery long under present conditions. It is claimed the government is running behind monthly financially and that American recognition is necessary to enable Huerta to get the necessary governmental necessities.

Should the Huerta Government fall, in the opinion of Ambassador Wilson, conditions in the Republic will be worse than at present, and American lives and property will be in greater danger. The fact that many members of the Senate Committee took the same view at the end of the conference probably will result in President Wilson's submitting the information in his possession upon which he bases his policy, principally as to boundary matters and the selection of a Mexican Cabinet officer to control the elections, whose character would be a promise of fair dealing to the constitutional forces.

REED SQUELCHES N. A. M. LAWYER IN MULHALL INQUIRY

Question Whether Witness Was Fired as Policeman Causes Censoring of Queries.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Martin M. Mulhall's cross-examination by attorneys for the National Association of Manufacturers before the Senate Lobby Committee today opened up with a lively row between Senator Reed and Attorney Robert McCarty. McCarty insisted on asking questions himself; Senator Reed insisted that all questions should go through the committee. Chairman Overman ruled with Senator Reed. McCarty precipitated the outbreak by asking Mulhall if he had not been discharged from the Cleveland police force 10 years ago for violation of a State law. Mulhall replied he was dismissed for political reasons, and demanded counsel.

"I was advised by friends to refuse to answer," he exclaimed. "I want counsel. I insist on it and refuse to go on until I have it. I'll go to jail before I'll answer questions about my personal affairs 10 or 20 years ago."

"Instead of being designed to throw light on this case, many of these questions are designed to throw mud at the witness," declared Senator Reed. "This is an investigation, not a trial. I insist you have not right to say a word," he concluded, addressing McCarty.

Mulhall withdrew his demand for counsel and the hearing proceeded, with the attorneys submitting their questions to Chairman Overman.

Tells of Sale of Letters. "Is it not true that Samuel H. Springer, who resides at your house, tried to dispose of these letters to the Philadelphia Press and the Philadelphia Record?" Mulhall was asked.

"It's a vicious lie," he shouted. Mulhall denied that he ever offered the correspondence to two magazines or to the New York Times. He denied having made a statement to Richard Barry, who was representing him, that the manufacturers' association would pay $10,000 for the documents if they could not be disposed of to papers or magazines.

Mulhall denied that he agreed Barry should sell the letters to the New York World for $10,000 and that he should be content with $2000; but later he testified that at Barry's suggestion he did agree. He never paid Barry.

"Have you produced all letters between you and the association?" asked Senator Sumner.

"I believe I have not."

parent frock should be worn at all by women more than 45 or 50 years old. Younger women look to those of more mature age for counsel and for examples of propriety. As for the others, her conclusions seemed to be that most of the world's evil—not that she called transparent skirts an evil—is in the minds of those who think it.

The reporter had it in mind to get some of Mrs. Kiel's views on the skirt, but she made it clear, in a perfectly polite, well-bred way, that the forenoon was no time of day for a busy housewife to be gossiping about fashions, when there were so many more important things to demand her attention. Besides, Mayor Kiel has given his official dictum on it: It's O. K. if it sits to the ankle, it's immodest if it sits to the knee.

GIRLS TOO DISTRACTED TO SIT WITH AUTO DRIVER

Feminine Companions Are Cause of Accidents in Streets, Says London Magistrate.

LONDON, July 31.—"I venture to express the opinion that no one driving a motor car in the streets of London, least of all an amateur, should have a lady seated beside him," remarked Magistrate Plowden, when delivering today judgment in a case in which a young club man named Eric Thompson had been summoned for causing the death of a woman by knocking her down with his automobile while he had a "young woman beside him."

"The car requires and should receive his undivided attention," continued the Judge. "It is only too easy to imagine how his attention may be distracted in a thousand ways by a person of the opposite sex sitting beside him. It is a distracting companionship. Some ladies are nervous, some inquisitive, some garrulous, some attractive. But in a thousand ways the driver may be taken off his guard and an accident may occur."

There is no commoner sight nowadays in London than to see a young man driving a motor car with a girl beside him, to whom he is devoting a large share of his attention, to the danger of the public.

Magistrate Plowden's comment is universally approved.

3 GIRLS DROWN IN STORM

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 31.—Three young women were drowned last night when a squall capsized a rowboat containing six persons on Loch Lomond, a few miles from here. Three others were saved after clinging to the overturned boat for two hours.

The dead girls were Miss Lily Davis, Miss Brown and Miss Eliza Darling, all of this city. They were fishing on the lake when the storm overtook the craft.

Trees on White House Lawn
Uprooted and Tumult Hurries President Into Inner Room—Painters Buffeted on Capitol Dome.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—The national capital awakened today to begin a civic house cleaning, and citizens and city employees alike joined hands in an effort to clean up the litter and debris left in the streets by the cyclonic storm of yesterday. No accurate estimate of the monetary damage done is obtainable, the greatest havoc having been caused through the breaking and leveling of many of the finest trees, which cannot be replaced. Late reports from outlying districts disclosed damage to property greater than was at first surmised. E. H. Hilton, a real estate dealer, Thomas B. Peal, 65 years old, and an unidentified rescuer were killed in the collapse of a three-story real estate office.

The storm played many curious pranks in its brief career. A heavy moving van waiting in the rear of a fashionable apartment house was caught by the wind and turned on end, the three horses attached to it being suspended in the air by their collars and being nearly strangled before they could be lowered to the ground. A number of persons trying to leave a street car narrowly escaped being run down by a heavy automobile which came tearing down the street impelled by the wind and without a chauffeur or other occupant.

Lightning Plays Tricks.
Lightning struck a house in Annapolis, a suburb, passed through three bedrooms, and in each room the damage done was the breaking of glasses in bureaus.

Search is being made on both the Maryland and Virginia shores of the Potomac River for countless launches and small craft that were scattered from their moorings like chaff. It is feared a number of these have been sunk, although so far as is known at the present, no loss of life is reported.

Out of a blaring sky, under which the city was sweating with the temperature at the 100 point, came the storm roaring from the north, driving a mass of clouds that cast darkness over the town. The rain, reaching a velocity of nearly seventy miles an hour, swept the streets clear, unroofed houses, tore detached small structures from their foundations, wrecked one office building, overturned wagons and carriages and swept Washington's hundred parks, tearing huge branches from trees, and even uprooting sturdy old elms, the landmarks of a century.

The neatly kept lawns of the White House were devastated. Three huge elm trees, uprooted by the wind, were blown bodily across the lawn and up to the very portico of the building, blocking the drives. President Wilson was seated in the executive office when the wind crashed through several windows in the White House proper. Secretary Taft hurried the President and Representative Korbly of Indiana, with whom he was conferring, to a sheltered interior room, away from the searing lightning flashes.

Twenty trees were down on the White House lawn this morning. Of the many historic trees there, the giant elm planted by President Hayes, torn from its roots, lay across the presidential drive near the portico. The McKinley oak and the Harrison sweet gum weathered the storm, as did the Cleveland elm. It was estimated that fully 100 cords of wood were obtainable from the damaged trees and the White House gardener was instructed to offer the wood to the poor.

Senate Has to Quit Work.

When the storm broke, 35 painters were at work on the dome of the Capitol, swinging high on shaky scaffolding. William Reese, the foreman, hurried to the dome and got most of his men to shelter inside the big inverted bowl, but four men were too late. Two sealed the dome in the wind and rain and gained a sheltered ledge, where they weathered the storm after trying in vain to get inside. The other two were caught on a swinging scaffold just under the eaves of the dome and there they swung, buffeted by the wind, beaten by the hail and soaked by the rain, while the big flashes of blue lightning trickled around the dome, down from the platinum lightning rods in the head of the Goddess of Freedom that surmounts the structure. When the storm was over, they were swept, shaken and bruised, to safety inside the dome.

X-Ray Skirts

(Mayor Kiel says diaphanous skirts are immodest.—News Item.)

By W. H. JAMES.

THE Mayor discusses something here that we can see through quickly: Unlike the problem of our bridge No doubts obscure it thickly.

Transparent it appears to all The light of day shines through it; Thus causing some to gasp amazed While harmless others view it.

The Mayor perhaps has only seen One side of this his topic— The shady side, as must be plain, For that's the side that's tropic.

huge window, sent a storm of broken plate glass hurtling through the big pressroom.

Eight or ten women were cut by falling glass, and one printer, John Rhodes, received severe scalp wounds. A hundred or more of the girls working as printers' assistants, faint and fell to the floor, and the others dashed terror-stricken for the exits. For two hours the office was in an uproar.

$1000 in Bills Swept Away.
While the excitement was at its height the wind caught a bundle of 1000 $1 bills, half finished, and swept it through the broken window. The bundle was ripped to pieces and the bills were scattered. Director Ralph hurried out a force of scouts and after combing Potomac Park and the grounds of the Washington Monument and fishing in the tidal basin near by, all but $75 worth of the bills were recovered.

At the pension office the lightning tore a corner off the roof and crashed in scores of windows. Another lightning bolt smashed a hole in the roof of the Postoffice Building and ripped open one face of the big clock in the tower. The wind carried fifteen heavy panels from the floor of the historic old Aqueduct Bridge and a horse and wagon crossing the structure were blown into the river. The driver escaped.

Woman and Girl Injured in Storm in Eastern Jasper County.

JOPLIN, Mo., July 31.—A storm swept the eastern part of Jasper County and a portion of Newton County last night and several persons were reported injured. Houses and farm buildings were blown about, some farm buildings were struck by lightning and burned and much stock was killed. A heavy rain accompanied the wind.

Duweg, a plowing town a few miles east of Joplin, probably suffered the worst. Several houses were torn from their foundations and trees were uprooted. Mrs. Joseph Ruckman was blown against a tree and suffered a broken leg. Her home was wrecked. At the home of Irvin Baker in Carthage, the parlor windows were blown out. His 12-year-old daughter, Dorris, was standing near a window and was caught by falling glass which almost severed her leg. Two inches of rain fell in some parts of Jasper County.

LAMBERTS SAVED BY SERVANTS FROM JEWEL ROBBERS

St. Louisans Congratulate Themselves After Big Diamond Haul at Narragansett Pier.

LOSSES NEARLY $300,000

Mrs. Hanan and Mrs. Rumsey Give Inventory of Gems to Adjusters Showing Greater Value.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., July 31.—Mrs. John H. Hanan, whose home is at 1705 Fifth avenue, New York, has given to the authorities the details of the disappearance of pearls and diamonds worth at least $150,000, from Shore Acres, her cottage on the Ocean road here. They were taken, she said, from a secret drawer in her dressing table while she was at the Casino Friday night.

Meanwhile Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Lambert of St. Louis are congratulating themselves that their servants' watchfulness possibly saved them a heavy loss. Late last week a man claiming to be an inspector came to their home in their absence and asked to examine the wiring. He was admitted, but was kept under constant surveillance, but when he passed into the servants' quarters this watchfulness was relaxed. After his departure it was discovered the chauffeur's jewelry had been stolen.

Insurance adjusters have begun making an inventory of the Hanan jewels. The completion of their work may increase the figures mentioned. In any event, Mrs. Hanan's story has swelled to nearly $300,000. Reason was found for believing that the loss occurred Saturday night by Mrs. Mary Hanman Rumsey was more nearly $100,000 than the $30,000 at which her jewels were valued at first.

Cottagers have reached the same emotional stage as the one which marked last summer, after thefts had approached a total of close to $300,000. Special officers patrolling the Ocean road and one of the cottages has been killed literally. At Bass Rock, the home of Dr. Archibald Thompson, not even intimate friends of the family may gain admission without being met with an almost military challenge.

Suspicion Falls on Many. These are unhappy days for the chance visitor here who does not know his person reputation of "the suspicion that he is one of the gang of thieves who robbed the Rumsey and Hanan homes. All but those who are well known here are viewed with suspicion, and some of the amateur sleuths go so far as to say that a few residents will bear watching.

The usual number of midweek guests has been nearly doubled by the presence of detectives, and as these men represent at least three different competing agencies, the greater number are not known to each other. In one instance two operatives representing rival agencies spent a whole day shadowing each other.

The gravity at the Casino and other places where the members of the cottage colony met today was subdued by the knowledge that the detectives were about. Patrons spoke in whispers over their tea cups and every stranger, whether man or woman, was immediately placed under suspicion of being either detective or jewel thief.

The usual crop of inside "tips" to the effect that arrests are imminent are afloat, but those in authority say that the detectives are no wiser as to the identity of the thieves who got away with $250,000 worth of gems. Both Mr. Rumsey and Mrs. Hanan declared ridiculous the theory that a house guest had sought to climb higher in society by the aid of the missing ropes of pearls. "My guests were all friends," said Mrs. Hanan, "and none of them were in the house when the robbery occurred."

Desperate Man Believed to be in League to Rob Summers. NEWPORT, R. I., July 31.—Following the many robberies at Narragansett Pier and the belief that there is a large range of desperate criminals engaged in plotting the spoliation of the residences of summer people at the resorts along the coast, the summer colonies here are taking extra precautions looking toward the safeguarding of their valuables. Many of those who do not already own safe deposit vaults in Newport banks, rented them today and immediately deposited their valuables, or the major portion of them.

Some of the summer residents who live over two miles from the center of the city have hired watchmen. $10—Detroit and Return—$10, Via Clover Leaf Route.

MAN'S JOKE COSTS $45

Drives Horse Off at Dance and Is Fined for Malicious Mischief. It cost Wilbur Spearhouse, who resides north of Belleville, $45 to play a joke on George Gass. Spearhouse pleaded guilty in the county court to a charge of malicious mischief and was fined $45 and costs, which amounted to $45.

The indictment against Spearhouse charged that he drove Gass' horse away from a dance last September without asking Gass' consent. Spearhouse said he drove the horse away, but thought it was a good joke. Cogswell's Salt Water Taffy, 10c, Friday Candy Bargain, 5th at Washington.

Burglars Rob Tailor Shop. Burglars used a jimmy to force the front door of the tailor shop of Usher & Patton, 43 North Ninth street, early Thursday. The police found the door open and notified the proprietors, who found that goods valued at $200 had been stolen.

BIG "HANSEL AND GRETTEL" SUCCESS LIKELY FOR FUND

All Indications Promise Great Triumph for Beautiful Fairy Play to Save the Babies.

All indications now point to a record-breaking success for the "Hansel and Gretel" entertainment at the Shennandoah Theater on Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund to save the tenement babies.

It seems to be the determination of the South Side children taking part in the performance, and of the grown folks interested in their helpful venture, to realize such a handsome financial total for the Pure Milk Fund as shall place their enterprise in the lead of all fund benefits for the summer of 1913. The fact that the tenement babies are in greater peril this summer than ever before in all the fund's history, owing to the prolonged heat waves that have so sapped the vitality of these little ones of the poor, is stimulating the managers of the "Hansel and Gretel" production to their best endeavor.

Mrs. I. A. Schulherr, of 3953 Hartford street, and Mrs. J. B. Kantorwits, of 2955 Hartford, are finely active in directing the work of the children and doing everything possible to insure the success of the entertainment.

Rehearsals of the beautiful little fairy play, and also of the many select vaudeville numbers on the program, are progressing most auspiciously, promising an uncommonly clever performance. All the children, with other children of the neighborhood enlisted for similar service, are selling tickets with a vigor that bids fair to crowd the Shennandoah Theater to the doors.

This pretty playhouse has been kindly donated for the occasion by Manager Flynn, who is an enthusiastic "Hansel and Gretel" worker. In addition to the boxoffice receipts, it is also expected that a notable amount will be realized for the Pure Milk Fund from the sale of advertising space on the program. Messrs. L. A. Schulherr, of 3953 Hartford; Claude L. Hemphill, of 5035 Maple, and C. S. Hartbridge Jr., 6924 Fyler avenue, having volunteered for arduous service as advertising solicitors. and Fyler avenues, are printing the tickets, program and other needed matter free of charge.

The full details of the "Hansel and Gretel" cast, together with the vaudeville program and long list of little girls who will appear as fairies in the play's spectacular features, already have been published in the Post-Dispatch.

To the list of fairies now must be added the names of Lillian Krause, 4035A Hartford street, and Emma Hubie, 490 Westford, these having been inadvertently omitted from the first mention.

Among the little girls who are assisting the many youthful performers in the sale of tickets are Florence Marx, 2850 Pestalozzi street; Kathryn Schaefer, 5628A Connecticut avenue; Mildred Cerny, 299 Nebraska; Margaret McKeown, 442 Morganford road, and Arline Schwartzkopf, 2639 Humphrey street.

Little Marjorie Gutgsell of 3819 Hartford street, one of the fairies, also will appear in a solo dance, and Myrtio Estep, who is quite famous as a graceful little singer and dancer, is rehearsing her very best act for this performance.

It is safe to predict that Saturday afternoon's presentation of "Hansel and Gretel," with its accompanying high-class vaudeville features, will be worthily memorable indeed.

Eight clever children gave an entertainment at 2436 Crittenden street for the benefit of the Pure Milk Fund and earned $14.75 to aid the good work of saving the tenement tots.

An admission fee of 5 cents was charged. The program consisted of songs by Leslie Mayo, a Dutch dance by Lurine Gwynn and Georgia McClellan, the singing of "All Aboard for Blanket Bay," in which Ruth Singer, aged 2½ years, and Dorothy Meyer and Herman Pelke, both aged 3, made a great hit, appearing in their "nighties" and carrying candles almost as tall as their wee selves, and the presentation of a fairy play entitled "The Rescue of Princess Ilda," written by Miss Amy Rotty and produced under her direction.

The cast of this play was: Princess Ilda, Natalia Gabel, 2436 Crittenden place; Prince Charming, Leslie Mayo, 3441 Arsenal; Mado of the Mist, Viola Rash, 3438A Arsenal; Fairy Queen, Ella Pelke, 343 Crittenden; Bluebell, Laurene Gwynn, 3437 Arsenal; Daisy, Georgia McClellan, 3434 Crittenden; Snap, Julius Schrieber, 3439 Arsenal; Wing, Roland Rotty, 3437A Arsenal; Fairies, Ruth Singer, 3438A Arsenal, and Dorothy Meyer, 3440A Crittenden; Elf, Herman Pelke, 343 Crittenden.

Adele Autenreth, Eugenie and Dorothy Cohen, three helpful little girls of Clayton, Mo., conducted a lemonade stand for the benefit of the Pure Milk Fund and earned $4 with which to help save the tenement babies.

A moving picture and vaudeville show was given for the benefit of the Pure Milk Fund by Masters Edgar and Walter Walsh, ably assisted by Masters Malcolm and Donnell Calhoun and Allen and Quentin Gould, realizing $160 for the babies. The Post-Dispatch would like to have the residence addresses of these boys in order that membership cards of the Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund League may be sent to them.

Dorothy Elkas, Kitty Elkas, Paul Grote and Isabel Simpson, all of Meramec Highlands, gave a bright little entertainment, earning $2 with which to help the Pure Milk Fund save the little ones of the poor in St. Louis' crowded tenement districts.

Emily and Myrtle Harsch of Hercules, Mo., send $15 to the Pure Milk Fund, this amount having been realized from an ice cream social given by these two helpful sisters.

Allan Mayer of 4171 Russell avenue and Louis Reuter of 4227 Russell, aged 11 and 13 years, respectively, sold lemonade opposite the entrance to Shaw's Garden and earned $1 with which to help save the tenement tots.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lyons sent $2 to the Post-Dispatch, writing: "Please use this for the Pure Milk Fund for the babies."

"A Friend" sends $5 "for the baby milk and ice fund."

Hooray! Blood Free of Impurities

Eczema Gone! Acne, Tetter, Rash, Pimples, Carbuncles, Boils—Banished!

The under layer of skin is a fine network of tiny blood vessels in which the famous blood remedy, S. S. S., works with remarkable activity. This is why S. S. S., the best known blood purifier, has such a positive action in the skin. There is one ingredient in S. S. S. which peculiarly stimulates cellular or glandular activity to select from the blood or from this fine network of blood vessels in the skin, those elements which it requires for regeneration.

Under the influence of S. S. S. this fine network of blood vessels in the skin is constantly taking from the blood the nutrition required for healthy tissue, and the cause of disease is just as constantly becoming removed, scattered and rendered harmless. These facts are more fully explained in a book on skin troubles sent by The Swift Specific Co., 190 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores! # BANDIT UNDER 25-YEAR SENTENCE, TO REFORM

Train Robber Says There Is Nothing In Trying to Beat the Authorities.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 31.—On the eve of his departure for the State penitentiary at Lansing, Kan., to serve a term of 25 years for train robbery, William La Trasse announced that he had resolved to reform.

"There is nothing gained by trying to beat the authorities," he said. "From now on I am going to behave, so there will be no reason for locking me up. All I ask is that they will give me some work to do in the prison where the sun will shine in once in a while. I believe I will serve out most of my time, and when I get out I'll be too old to cause much trouble. I want to stay in prison long enough to be forgotten when I get out again."

La Trasse held up a passenger train near this city more than two years ago. When awaiting trial he escaped from the Wyandotte County (Kan.) Jail and was rearrested in Illinois a few weeks ago.

SLAYER OF DALLAS GIRL BELIEVED TO BE NEAR ARREST

Seizing of Murderer Is Said to Be Delayed Until Excitement Subsides.

DALLAS, Tex., July 31.—An impression, which has gained ground ever since last night, and which is general today, is that the police have caught the slayer of Florence T. Brown, typist, who was slain in a real estate office here last Monday morning.

It is generally believed that the arrest has been deferred until midnight tonight, when the feeling caused by the funeral of the girl this afternoon has had time to subside and when most people will be asleep.

This program, it is believed, is being carried out to reduce to the minimum the possibility of a lynching or an attempted lynching. The confidence displayed by the officers today supports these impressions, but the police refuse to say anything more than that "the whole case will be settled to the satisfaction of the public by tomorrow morning."

At 4 o'clock this afternoon at the McKinney avenue Baptist Church, the funeral of the slain girl will take place. Elaborate police arrangements have been made to keep the morbidly curious from crowding in and about the home and church. It is said by the chief that the suspected slayer may be at the funeral.

The internment will be in Oakland Cemetery and a guard will be kept about the grave for several days to prevent souvenir hunters from desecrating it. By the process of elimination the police say they have narrowed down to one theory and that it is believed will result in the arrest of a man in Dallas within the next 24 hours.

William W. La Beaume, a fire insurance man, is in charge of the plans for the St. Louis Pageant, to be produced next spring on Art Hill, Forest Park, in celebration of the sesqui-centennial, or 150th anniversary, of the founding of St. Louis by Pierre Liguette Laclede.

La Beaume was named as chairman of the productions committee, which will devise the form of the entertainment. All that is determined thus far is that it will be in the nature of historical moving pictures, and that mounted figures and Indians in canoes will be used.

BROWNS' OFFICIALS LOOK OVER FUNDS OF SCOUT CRIGER

Hedges Will Invest No Money Without Inspecting All Material Personally.

HAS BEEN STUNG TWICE

"What You Don't Invest You Can't Lose," Is Owner's Motto.

By John E. Wray

Robert Lee Hedges and Branch Ricker were in Indianapolis Wednesday, watching the work of Pitcher Northrop and Third Baseman Niehoff of the Louisville team, players who were recommended by Lew Criger. The boss of the local American League club is smarting under the recent sting headed him by Dick Cooley of the San Diego team. Cooley slipped Hedges $100,000. Since his arrival here Hedges has as closely resembled a baseball player as a Hedges does a spendthrift.

In consequence, when his scouts pick out stars, before purchasing the same Hedges, or his man Friday, Branch Ricker, must personally inspect the man before an investment is made. No $10,000 beauties are the Louisville man. Boss Hedges is after that sort of stuff. While that $100,000 limit which Jack O'Connor attributes to him, may no longer be in vogue, the Browns' president looks with a wary eye on anything with the price mark above the $100,000 attached.

"I believe in developing material, not trying to buy it ready made, from bush-league baseball schools. I don't see many of these high-priced men making good," is the way Hedges explains his position.

He can't see the justification for investments like $11,000 Russell Blackburn, $11,000 "Lefty" Russell, $12,500 O'Toole, and other expensive "lemons." The Browns management is evident proceeding on the perfectly correct theory that by buying club material they can never be disappointed at its failure to pan out. However, Pat Newman and Sailor Flanagan appear to have handed the Browns about $100,000 worth of setback, between them.

Patman Race Not Over. While McGraw and Connie Mack are busy counting world's series chickens, it is just as well to remember that there are instances on record where the same sort of eggs have failed to hatch out. Some years ago Cincinnati almost won a pennant. The tail end of the season rolled around with the Reds owning about a sixteen game lead over the nearest rival.

With only 24 scheduled contests left to play things began to happen. And everything happened that shouldn't. Cincinnati lost 21 out of 24 games, its memory serves rightly, and the pennant, too.

Connie Mack's club some seven years or so ago had a world's championship lead over the field in July. The club was out in front with a percentage of about .600. Then the misfortunes began to hit the team's veterans. The club was virtually wrecked, so badly so that when it went West for its final trip of the season Mack left his regulars at home and brought a team of recruits to the Occident. He had given up the fight.

It only takes a quick succession of bad breaks to ruin a 10 or 12-game lead; and the season is only a shade past the halfway mark, at present.

GRANDFATHER OF YOUTHFUL FORGER QUILTS U. S. POST

J. J. Carstarphen's Resignation From Customs Place Follows Speed Atkinson's Acts.

DRAWN CARTOONS IN CELL

Pictures Self With Money, Gotten Through Bad Checks, Bulging From Pockets.

Speed Atkinson's forgeries and manipulations of worthless checks have caused his grandfather, James J. Carstarphen, to resign responsible and lucrative post as United States Surveyor of Customs. This was learned Thursday by Detective Deberry and Hart, who arrested Atkinson. Carstarphen, who lives at 4647 Washington boulevard, is said to have gone to California to escape from his grandson's misdeeds.

When the detectives inquired at the customs office as to the whereabouts of Carstarphen, they were told he had resigned, and that he had asked a private detective agency to have Atkinson arrested, as he despaired of persuading the young man to reform.

"My grandson has caused me such annoyance and distress," Carstarphen told his associates in the custom house, "that I cannot remain where he is. He has bothered the life out of me for years, and when I could not lend him as much as he wanted, he has borrowed from my friends. Now he has taken to forgeries, and it is more than I can stand."

Atkinson, who is 22 years old and a graduate of the Chicago Art Institute, drew cartoons in his cell Wednesday afternoon, and distributed them to newspaper men. The cartoons were based on his own plight, and in them he pictured himself with money bulging from his pockets and tucked beneath his hatband. The money was that which he raised by forging his grandfather's name to checks on the St. Louis Union Trust Co.

The police records show that Atkinson was wanted by the police of Quincy, Ill., for the same sort of conduct which caused his arrest here. His arrest was asked in a letter written to Chief Young June 3 by Chief Constable Quincy. It was said at Police Headquarters that he would probably be turned over to the Quincy police.

Atkinson refused to discuss the Quincy charge. He had previously made voluntary expressions of his belief that his grandfather would help him out of his present difficulty, and would enable him to get a new start in Canada or Australia.

His journey to San Francisco, in which he spent the greater part of the $400 realized by his forgeries, is believed to have been made in the effort to find his grandfather.

FORMER EMPLOYEE HELD FOR TELEPHONE ROBBERY

Man With a Key Is Surprised at Work in a Booth in Easton Avenue Saloon.

When two men were using the Bell telephone in a booth in V. Massie's saloon, 6115 Easton avenue, late Wednesday night, the bartender, Peter Pasmal, heard the jangle of numerous nickels on the floor. He opened the door of the booth, and saw that the man inside had removed the covering from the iron box.

The man explained that he had one of the company's keys, and said he had taken off the outer cover in order to get a connection without paying a nickel. The man, and another who had entered the saloon with him, then left, and the bartender, examining the telephone, found it had been robbed.

The man's companion was recognized by someone in the saloon as Joseph Nolis of 1330 North Broadway, a line-man. Police men later learned from Nolis that the man who used the telephone was Thomas J. Bagley, a former employee of the Bell company, living at 5112 Julia avenue, St. Louis County. He said Bagley had given 10 nickels to him and had exchanged 100 nickels for a $5 bill in a saloon on Natural Bridge road. Bagley, when arrested, said he had been drinking, and that while he remembered taking off the iron covering, he did not remember taking any of the nickels which fell out.

WARRANT FOR MOTORMAN IN CREVE COEUR CRASH

He Is Charged With Culpable Negligence in Ignoring Warnings of Blockade on Line.

A warrant charging John Harmon, a motorman, with culpable negligence was issued at Clayton Wednesday afternoon as a result of the official investigation of a daylight crash on the Creve Coeur Lake car line, June 25, in which 20 passengers were injured.

The prosecuting witness whose name appears on the warrant, is Mrs. E. J. Davis of 315 Lafayette avenue, who was seriously hurt in the wreck. Prosecuting Attorney Leahy told a Post-Dispatch reporter that there will be no prosecution of United Railways officials for requiring motorman to maintain a high rate of speed on the Creve Coeur line.

The accident, Leahy said, was not due to the speed schedule, but to Harmon's ignoring of warnings given to him by other motorman that there was a wire down ahead and that the line was blocked.

FORMER SECRETARY OF UNION WHO IS BRIDE

MRS. HENRY J. ERRICO.
UNION LABOR GIRL ELOPES AND WEDS IN ST. CHARLES

Miss Margaret Crane, Former Garment Worker's Secretary, Marries Henry J. Errico.

Friends of Miss Margaret Crane, 21 years old, of 4134 Turner avenue, learned Thursday of her elopement to St. Charles and marriage to Henry J. Errico, a lifelong sweetheart, last Saturday.

Miss Crane, who was secretary of the St. Louis Garment Workers' Union for six years, told her mother, Mrs. Anna Crane, business agent of the union, that she was going shopping that afternoon.

When she failed to return for dinner, Mrs. Crane was preparing to report the girl's disappearance to the police when over the telephone the girl said she was in St. Charles. When Mrs. Crane ordered her to come home immediately, Margaret said she had just been married. Paternal blessing was bestowed over the phone and the couple returned to Mrs. Crane's home, where they will live.

Mrs. Errico will resign from the union in a few weeks, but will ask to be reinstated as an honorary member in order that she may continue to interest herself in the union's affairs.

Errico, who is 24 years old, is a dealer in shoes.

Trans-Mississippi Congress Off. KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 31.—The Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, set for Wichita, Kan., next October, was called off because the National Congress is in session at that time. The next meeting will be held in 1914.

"THE GREATEST KIDNEY REMEDY ON EARTH" SAYS A GREAT L WOMEN

I want to tell you how much good your Swamp-Root did me. About four years ago I suffered from what the doctors called fistula and for two years of that time I endured what no tongue can tell. I also had inflammation of the bladder and I tried doctors' medicines without receiving any help. Someone told me about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

After giving it a thorough trial, I received relief, so kept on using it, and today I am a strong and well woman. If I ever feel badly or out of sorts, I take Swamp-Root and it always restores me to health. I honestly believe that this medicine would cure all troubles you recommend it for, and it is a pleasure for me to send my testimony and photograph to you. I think Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is one of the greatest medicines on earth.

Respectfully yours,
MRS. JOHN BAILY,
West Main St., Portland, Ind.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of July, 1909.

COUNT SZECHENYI TO BE DIVORCED BY WIFE, IS REPORT

PARIS, July 31.—The Countess Lassi Szechenyi, formerly Miss Gladys

Vanderbilt, youngest daughter of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt of New York, is on the point of demanding a divorce from her husband, according to a telegram from Budapest last night to the Petit Parisien.

The Countess' reason for this step, it is stated, is that the Count lost almost all his wife's dowry on the Bourse and in other gambling speculations. It is alleged that he has spent $7,000,000 since his marriage in New York Jan. 27, 1908.

Last February the Count received a deputation of Albanian chiefs, who offered the throne of the new Albania to him, but the Countess absolutely refused to entertain the idea.

Lawyer Connected With Vanderbilts Discredited Reported Action. NEW YORK, July 31.—A New York lawyer who has long been connected with the Vanderbilt interests said last night that he had heard nothing of any contemplated action by the Countess Szechenyi against her husband and he discredited the report that she was about to bring proceedings.

COMIC SUPPLEMENTS HIS CURE FOR BLUES

Oscar Braniff, Rich Man of Mexico, Reads Them When Peace Plans Are Threatened.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Oscar Braniff, one of the richest men in Mexico, who has been in Washington using every means to bring about peace and prosperity for his country, is an optimist. No matter how gloomy the outlook, he smiles and cheerfully works ahead. "How do you do it?" asked an American friend.

"I'll tell you my secret," replied Braniff. "I try to maintain a sense of humor under all conditions. I keep in stock the comic sections of Sunday newspapers and the magazine pages of evening newspapers, with Paris comics on the side. When things are wrong I go to my room and have a little session with the cartoonists and the funny-picture men. It is a wonderful relief and helps a man to see sunshine through the darkest storm."

ALTON PEEPER IN SKIRTS CAPTURED AFTER HOT CHASE

William Newman, Seen Near Girl's Window, Slips Out of Woman's Garb and Runs.

DOZENS JOIN PURSUIT

Mayor in Pajamas One of the Leaders—Prisoner Says He Likes the Excitement.

A "Jack the Peeper," in Alton, who has frightened the women of that town for a year, tried a new plan Wednesday night with a scenario that would have delighted the moving picture men.

William Newman was the peeper. Between 9 and 10 p. m. he appeared dressed in skirts in the yard at the home of Miss Minnie Thrush at Fourth and Spring streets. He tapped on the window and called to her. She was alone in the house.

Miss Thrush, badly frightened, flew to the telephone and called two neighbors—John Dietrich and Albert Henderson. They caught the peeper in the back yard.

Newman told them he was whistling for his dog. He slipped out of his skirt, dashed out of a back gate and ran up the alley. Dietrich fired three times at him with a shotgun, alarming the entire neighborhood.

Several hundred persons turned out of their homes, some of them in night clothes, to chase the peeper. Mayor J. C. Satterstedt, in pajamas, and his wife, led the chase, while a boy on a bicycle furnished illumination with his headlight.

The peeper evaded his pursuers, but was captured half an hour later, hiding in the hay loft of John Spaniol's barn. He was held by the police on a charge of peace disturbance.

Three months ago Newman was shot near the heart in a quarrel. In the last year he has been arrested many times for peeping. He told the police that he loved the excitement of being chased by big crowds of people, and that his desire for such sport impelled him to make occasional peeping rounds of the city.

BOY'S FAMILY TO GIVE SKIN TO CURE BURNS

Mother, Brothers and Sisters of Injured Child Will Possibly Aid Grafting Process.

The brothers and sisters of Meyer Carlin, 5 years old, of 1424 North Fourteenth street, may be asked to give portions of their skin to be grafted on the breast of the child to hasten his recovery at the city hospital from burns inflicted June 8 when a pack of firecrackers set fire to his clothing. The boy's mother, Mrs. Goldie Carlin, will submit to an operation to remove pieces of her skin if the cutting is found to be available for grafting.

The child has been at the hospital since he was injured, and the burns have responded to treatment in which electric lights were hung above the bed to aid the healing process. The wounds have healed except for a space of about 9 square inches on his chest, and that amount of new skin is necessary to make complete recovery possible.

Girl Files New Charge Against He in Her Suit for $225,000 "I Promised $1000 a Week for Life"

MRS. ARTHUR J. HOE

Miss Sullivan Declares Her Association With Son of Printing Press Manufacturer Has Made Her Outcast and Barred Her From Marriage.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Miss Mae A. Sullivan, daughter of former Register Patrick Sullivan, filed an amended complaint yesterday in the action of $225,000 which she began in June against Arthur L. Hoe, son of Robert Hoe, printing press manufacturer, for breach of contract for support and breach of promise of marriage.

The suit as amended calls for the same damages in gross and adds the material charge that Hoe wronged her. Previously she disclaimed an improper relationship. Hoe is married and has children.

In her original complaint she said that in February, 1912, when she first learned of Hoe's marriage he promised her $1000 a week for life as the price of non-interference with him. He had been providing for her at that rate, she said, for three years. She is not yet 19. Her amended complaint says that Hoe has paid her only $800 on that contract in nearly 18 months. She now is suing for $75,000 for that breach and for $150,000 for his deception and desertion after he had promised marriage.

Met Him When She Was 16. Her story is that she met Hoe when she was 16, in October, 1910.

Her aunt, Mrs. Donnelly, with whom she had been living, died soon afterward, and Hoe began to provide for her support at the rate of about $1000 a week, having proposed marriage in December, 1910, and January, 1911.

She says the reason he gave for deferring the ceremony was that his father's estate was unsettled and he must have his fortune in hand before marriage. The ceremony was set for a date in December, 1911, she alleged, but was postponed by Hoe for another year.

In February, 1912, he admitted to her that he was married and a father, she says. When she threatened to sue him and to acquaint her relatives with the treatment she had received from him, he promised to settle on her $1000 a week for life. She says the liberal provision was made for her because, owing to her association with him, she had become an outcast from society and was forever barred from marriage with anyone in her own station.

Says He Bought Furniture. Describing her manner of life while under Hoe's protection, Miss Sullivan says he first bought $4000 worth of furniture for her and installed her in a fine apartment at 2031 Seventh avenue. She moved thence to the Hotel Norwood, 174 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, then to the Hotel Marcella, Broadway and One Hundred and Third street, next to Bretteau Hall, Broadway and Eighty-Sixth street; afterward to 500 West One Hundred and Tenth street, and finally to 400 Riverside Drive. She says Hoe visited her frequently at all these places, sometimes using the name of Smith and sometimes that of Hanley, but usually his own name.

Mirabeau L. Towns, who was Miss Sullivan's attorney in the original action, filed the amended papers. William H. Hamilton of 100 Broadway, attorney for Hoe, declined to comment on the complaint.

TRAP FOR MOSQUITOES WITH MUSIC AS BAIT

Wires Which Imitate Their Hum Said to Draw Them Like Magnet; Fly Paper Does Rest.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 31.—The Atlantic County Mosquito Commission, which has a $35,000 appropriation to use in ridding the county of mosquitoes, may try to lure the pests to death by musical vibrations, generated by electricity. According to information which the commission has received, Dr. L. O. Howard, of the Federal Department of Agriculture, has discovered that the hum of the mosquito, commonly attributed to the vibration of its wings, is caused by air expelled during the process of respiration. Dr. Howard learned that this hum could be imitated by electrical vibrations, toward which mosquitoes precipitated themselves as if drawn by a powerful magnet. By attaching large strips of sticky fly paper back of the vibrating wires, he perfected a deadly exterminator.

The local commission has addressed an inquiry to him with the idea of adopting his plan if it proves practical.

FISHING WAS
TRY IS OPPOSED

Men Object to Capt. McCulloch's Plan to Catch Carp Like He Does Nickles.

Surprising critics are trying to put the fish in the United Railways Co. because the company uses seines to catch fish.

Last year's haul yielded 8000 pounds of fish the average weight of which was half a pound. There were approximately 1600 fish which were fried and served to the company's employees and their families at their annual two-day fishing, there being a fraction more than a fish for each picknick. This is using on the basis that each employee's family contains at least four members who have arrived at the fishing age.

If Capt. McCulloch, president and general manager of the company, had caught all of these fish with a hook and line, assuming that carp bite every 30 seconds and allowing 10 seconds for reeling the hook he would be fishing and still not have half enough carp for the fry.

Captain Prefers With Seine. Hence, following a method with which he has long experience in fishing for nickles, he had made him familiar, he used seines.

Now the United Railways Co. is planning another outing for its employees, and, as in former years, it has asked the State Game and Fish Warden for permission to seine the lake. Jesse Towner, setting Game Warden, has asked the application on to his successor, Jesse Jones.

Assistant Game Warden Grether and Walter N. Fischer, president of the Missouri Game and Fish League, combined of persons who think they know how to catch "em without a seine, are urging Jones to withhold the permit.

L. A. Geierich, chairman of the Missouri Fish Commission, sides with the United Railways Co. and says it is a fine thing to seine out the coarse fish once a year, as it gives the game fish a chance to grow.

He says the facts are all against Geierich's argument. He points out that at only five game fish were caught last year's haul. This, he says, shows that the game fish in Creve Coeur Lake are in a hopeless minority.

Object on Moral Grounds. Fishermen, according to Fischer, are not envious of the United Railways Co. because of its big hauls of carp. They do not think the seining of the lake interferes with piscatorial sport, but they have their objections on moral grounds.

"There is a law against seining in Missouri," says Fischer. "The Game Warden has no right to grant a seining permit to anyone. When we go to the Legislature and ask it to pass more stringent laws against seining, it laughs at us and asks why the United Railways Co. is permitted to seine Creve Coeur Lake."

"I am in favor of making arrests if they attempt to seine the lake this year with or without a permit," says Capt. McCulloch's answer is that the moral of coarse fish from the lake should not interfere with anyone's sport.

MADDO ASSERTS HE CAN PROVE BANK CONSPIRACY.

ants Denials of Bond-Sale Plot to Go the Limit Before He Unloads Evidence.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The charge that Secretary McAdoo had conspired to reduce the value of government securities continued to draw much attention in both branches of Congress today. Methods by which the practice could be prevented, or the circumstances connected with the conspiracy could be investigated, were considered.

In the meantime, Secretary McAdoo refused to discuss the allegations. He made Monday that New York bonds below par to induce currency circulation. He said he would make a statement in a few days, that he wanted the law to go the limit in denouncing his charges and then he would uncover. He said he has the evidence and will "uncover" it soon.

STOCKS BOUGHT
BY PIERCE OIL CO.

Holders Get $1250 Cash and New Stock for Each Share—Price Rises to $2100.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The liquidating agents of the Waters Pierce Oil Co. have notified the stockholders that in consideration of payments of $50,000 cash and $100,000 face value of the common stock of the Pierce Oil Corporation, all the property of the Waters Pierce stock to the Pierce Oil Corporation.

On the curb Waters Pierce stock, which closed last night at $1500 bid, $1700 asked, soon advanced to $2100. By the terms of the transfer of Waters Pierce stock to the Pierce Oil Corporation, holders of Waters Pierce stock will receive $1250 in cash and $1000 in new stock for each share of the old company.

Arrangements for refinancing the Waters Pierce Oil Co. were completed several weeks ago, as told exclusively in the Post-Dispatch at the time. The Waters Pierce company was incorporated in Missouri with a capital stock of $400,000.

Although the company had property worth several millions of dollars, its capital stock was not increased. The stock, for many years, paid enormous dividends, sometimes as high as 700 per cent. Recent years the stock sold in the market at $800 to $1200 a share.

The company was reorganized after H. Clay Pierce had bought out the majority control of the Standard Oil interests. The object of this reorganization was to make the company a real competitor of the Standard. The Pierce Oil corporation was incorporated under the laws of Virginia with a nominal capitalization of $21,000,000. It is understood that financial circles that less than $100,000 in actual cash was put into the company. This, however, was sufficient to pay off the obligations of the Waters Pierce company, which had become heavy in the controversy between Pierce and Standard interests for control.

NOTATIONS ON SECURITIES ARE BARELY STEADY

Trading Is Quiet and Mostly Professional; London List Is Irregular.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The Evening Post, in its copyrighted financial report today, says:

"The market shows of strength during the opening hours today the stock market simply rested on its laurels. Prices were well enough held throughout the day, but trading was very light and not changes unimportant."

There was nothing in the market today to inspire activity. In the corn belt the showings, prediction of which were made last night, but they were not sufficient to arouse a general apprehension of results from the drought.

Some interesting railway earnings statements for June and for the first five months of the year were published. Among them Southern Pacific, which showed net receipts for the month of $1,000,000, and for the first five months of the year $5,000,000.

The London and Paris bank statements showed no great change in the position. The Bank of England again enlarged its gold holdings, this week's $2,000,000 gain making $1,000,000 increase since the beginning of the month. Its reserve remains as yet lower than the weekly average for any year since 1910, but its ratio of reserve to liabilities is the highest for a long time.

The week's $2,000,000 gain of gold by the Bank of England was again accounted for by the $2,000,000 gold exports from New York received in the week ending July 26.

"Nothing in these days of swift reversal of position could be much more than a passing spectacle of the French market, to which New York credit is still heavily indebted."

As against this moderate gain in the week ending July 26, the French bank's note circulation and $50,000,000 to its loans.
